EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

2012 EMU Honors Band Fact Sheet

- When: January 27-29, 2012
- Where: The EMU Honors Band will take place on the campus of Eastern Michigan University. EMU Honors Band students will be housed overnight at an area hotel and supervised the entire weekend by a select group of EMU student counselors. Activities will culminate in a concert performance at Pease Auditorium on Sunday afternoon at 2pm.
- Who: Approximately 85 student musicians will be selected to participate in the EMU Honors Band. Students who would like to be considered for participation must audition during their attendance at the Wind & Percussion Clinic Day on Saturday, November 19, 2011.
- Fee: $150 (includes all meals, housing, transportation, instruction, social events, and a CD of the concert.)
- Scholarships: Up to four outstanding student-musicians will be awarded full scholarships to participate in the EMU Honors Band. These scholarships will be awarded based on audition results.

EMU Honors Band Audition Requirements

- Brass and woodwind students should prepare a brief excerpt of a solo or etude that displays the extent of their technical and expressive abilities.
- Percussion students should be prepared to play a short solo of their choice on snare drum, a mallet instrument (marimba, xylophone, etc.) and, if possible, timpani. Sight-reading and timpani tuning will also be included.
